Andrew Carnegie Has Money To Give Away

Because he first learned to save it. Beginning on low wages he made it a firm principle to save a little each week. When his opportunity came he had the money laid by to embrace it.
If he had always carried his few odd coins around in his pocket—to spend on every trifle or imagined necessity—he would be "poor Andy" today.
After all, the chief difference between the poor and prosperous man is the ability to begin to save. You can begin with one dollar—the one you have in your pocket now.

CHINESE NOT BEER-DRINKERS

Honolulu Capital Sunk in Vain Effort to Inculcate Foreign Booze Habit

The U. S. Consul-General at Hongkong writes in a recent report:

The attempt of a corporation organized in Hongkong with foreign capital, largely from Honolulu, to establish a brewing business on the South Asiatic coast has been unsuccessful. The concern erected a modern brewery on a portion of the mainland opposite Hongkong in 1909, but lost money from the beginning. The company has gone into voluntary liquidation and is attempting to sell its plant.

The concern was organized with a capital of $500,000 gold. The plant established here was finely equipped, mostly with American machinery and appliances, including an outfit of glass-lined steel tanks, and was modern in every respect in installation—in fact, one of the reasons for the failure of the enterprise as a business undertaking is that the capacity of the plant—100,000 barrels of beer annually—is so far beyond present possible sale that its economical operation has been difficult if not impossible. However, the chief obstacle has been lack of success attending the firm's efforts to attract the patronage of the Chinese. In some parts of the new republic there is a fair consumption of beer among the natives, but as a rule the Chinese prefer their own alcoholic beverages, or, at most, take to foreign drinks other than beer.

For a time there was some reason to expect a successful introduction of beer among the Chinese of Hongkong. Sales of the company's output increased considerably, and growing popularity gave some practical ground for anticipating a change in Chinese tastes. The concern also operated an ice factory in connection with its brewery, and income from this source lent some support to the business.
The fact finally became plain, however, that for the time being the Chinese do not take to beer.

UNLAWFUL TO ASK "WHAT'LL YOU HAVE?"

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 30.— Treating in saloons may be prohibited by city ordinance.

The councilmen have under consideration here a revision of the ordinance regulating the liquor traffic.
They are studying the advisability of prohibiting treating in saloons, and making the man who purchases a drink for another, and not the bartender, who sells it, liable to punishment.
Other proposed changes in the liquor ordinance are the increase of saloon licenses by $25 a month, and restaurant and cafe liquor licenses $10 a month; one saloon in a block, and that no brewery shall directly or indirectly have any ownerships or control of premises used by saloon.
